

North Carolina needs a leader who will protect the air we breathe and the water we drink.

Cal Cunningham will be that leader in the U.S. Senate.

Paid for by LCV Victory Fund, www.lcvvictoryfund.org, and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

LCVN20007

CAL CUNNINGHAM

Cal understands that environmental racism is real and will take on corporate polluters who dump toxic chemicals into our air and water. He will fight to make every North Carolina community a clean, healthy and safe place to live.

- ✓ Cal will stand up to the special interests that for too long have been allowed to dump toxic, cancer-causing chemicals into Black and Latinx communities.
- ✓ As a state senator, Cal helped pass landmark clean air legislation that reduced harmful pollutants from coal-fired power plants by over 80%.
- ✓ Cal will invest in a clean energy economy that will create well-paying jobs in our community.
- ✓ Cal will work to clean up toxic pollution from coal ash and toxic PFAS chemicals that have contaminated water in North Carolina.

SEN. THOM TILLIS

Senator Thom Tillis sides with the corporate polluters who fund his campaign and has refused to hold polluters like Duke Energy accountable for releasing toxic chemicals into North Carolina communities.

- ✗ Has consistently sided with the oil and gas industry over the health of Black North Carolinians.<sup>1</sup>
- ✗ Has taken more than $57,000 in contributions from groups and people tied to Duke Energy.<sup>2</sup>
- ✗ Refused to make Duke Energy pay to clean up cancer-causing chemicals in a North Carolina river.<sup>3</sup>
- ✗ Voted 3 times to eliminate safeguards that protect our air and drinking water.<sup>4</sup>

CHECK THE FACTS: 1. Senate Vote #153, 11/17/2016; Senator Tillis press release, 01/22/2015 2. Center For Responsive Politics, accessed: 09/3/2020; 3. WRAL, 08/20/2014; Greensboro News & Record, 05/11/14 4. Senate Vote #324, 10/17/2019; Senate Vote #307, 11/17/2015; Senate Vote #295, 11/03/2015